Objectives and activities of the promoter

Please provide a short presentation of your organisation/group (usual activities, affiliations, etc) in relation to the field covered by the project.

High on life Spain born has an antenna of “High on Life Global Network”, actually the network count with antennas in Italy, Chile, Malta and Martinique.

We are a group of young people with huge experience in European programs, the associative field and non formal learning. We want to share our restless spirit with other young people around Spain, Europe and the World. We have an International vocation and we offer to young people both from Spain and Europe to join our projects.

High on life is a movement of people that loves to travel, explore, get connected with different cultures and live all the experiences of our life with a positive attitude.

Our mission is to create a positive and lasting impact on people and the world, focusing on the new generations! All the antennas of the network share the same aims, goals, mission and vision.

High on Life is the feeling that you get when you live life to its fullest. Someone who is HIGH ON LIFE can find reasons to smile in the smallest things, and won't let any random thing ruin his or her day. Our aim is to create this "feeling" on most of youth worldwide, let them understand how amazing life is! We believe that young people must become a driving force in building the society in which they live and therefore we create various opportunities in order to help shape a generation that is determined to change our countries and the world for the better.

We would like that the people from our community know more about other cultures, particularly, from Europe, but also about the other countries in the world. We want to introduce them different cultures, languages, ways of understanding life, history and contexts. We would like to facilitate the acquisition of skills through non-formal education mainly (workshops, project development, cultural activities, volunteering etc.).

Our way of working is integrative and proactive, it is the young participants who will carry out and implement our future projects with our support and the support of "High on Life Global Network"

What are the activities and experience of the organisation in the areas relevant for this application?

Since 2017 The "High on Life Global Network" has been running international training courses and youth exchanges for youth workers, trainers, facilitators and NGO leaders on the very diverse scope of topics. The experience that the team could gain through organizing these courses is priceless and unique. It enriched the team members and staff, it boosted a lot our creativity and capacity, knowledge and competences in non-formal education and intercultural learning. The quality of the projects of High on Life Spain is constantly rising in terms of organizational management, creativity, innovative educational tools and visual facilitation thanks the positive contamination of the Global Network.

In each project in sending we send people that are going to be in charge of running the new projects or activities during the mobility.

High on Life Spain is a well-structured association with all responsibilities and roles proficient defined throughout the team. Our team members are highly qualified with different backgrounds and fields of study, and provided with skills in several fields such as youth work, non-formal education, entrepreneurship, communication, social media, environment, human rights etc.

We operate with the support of High on Life Global Network" that offer us a wide range of opportunities to disseminate the results of our activities and projects thanks to our channels and contacts. Our organisation engages strongly online, through social media and the website, reaching out a vast number of people.

What are the skills and expertise of key staff/persons involved in this application?

The board of people who coordinate the activities of High on Life Spain have the objective to increasing the opportunities and competences of our young people. We want the young people open their eyes to Europe, to the world that they learn from young people with different languages and cultures. We are convinced that non-formal education is the most effective vehicle for acquiring tools, knowledge, skills and therefore it guides our work. We are people participative and committed with our community. We handle perfectly in English and that we have participated in several European projects as we have indicated before.

Here some informations about our board:

"Jesús Montes Luque: Political scientist currently pursuing a Master's degree in Planning, Governance, and Territorial Leadership. He has additional training in citizen participation, gender equality, environment, and rural development, along with involvement in various initiatives related to these topics.

He brings extensive experience in politics and project management, including roles as a student representative at the University of Granada and coordination of rural development projects. He is also involved in citizen services.

Currently, he serves as the European Projects Coordinator at High on Life Spain.

Aurora Soto: Sociologist with experience in managing Erasmus projects, as well as coordinating local sports, cultural, and social activities. She has mentored European volunteers and actively contributed to youth programs in the province of Granada through the Provincial Council. She has organized summer camps with language programs. As project director, she manages, drafts, and supervises projects, complemented by financial management responsibilities."
